Mr. Daws gave notice that he would call up the report for action as early probably as Thursday next.

Mr. Finck, (dem.) of Ohio, appealed to Mr. Dawes to give a longer time before he would call up the report, as the testimony was very voluminous and could not be printed by Tuesday next.

Mr. Daws declined, and stated that the testimony had been priced more than two months.

MEMORIAL FROM SOLDIEMS AND SALDORS.

Mr. GRUNNEL presented a memorial of the soldiers and saliers of the Union in regard to preference in appointments under the government.

The Sprakke presented a letter from the Secretary of War transpitting, in reply to a resolution of the House, March 9, 1806, the report of Major General Pope on the condition of the Department of Missouri. It was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The Sprakke presented a letter from the Commissioner of Agriculture transmitting the correspondence of European consula, received through the State Department, relative to the cattle plague, its nature, ravages and means of prevention, together with a copy of the haw recently onacted by the British Parliament on that subject. They were referred to the Committee on Frint lag.

Consel Anderson writes from Hamburg of his refusal to certify to invoices of hides, and advises the refusal of custom houses of all entries of hides, tallow or bones of cattle. He thinks a perfect despotsm should be exercised along our seaboard to prevent the introduction of the disease; and that the great good nature and buoyant hopefulness of the American people finite them slow to act in this important matter, and may lead us to imitate the delay of the English, which has amounted aimost to recklessness, and caused a loss of many millions of money.

Mr. Thomas H. Dudley, Consul at Liverpool, gives a tistory of the efforts made in England for prevention and ure, which have proved mainly unavailing, and seggests the sending of a commission to Europe, by our government, to examine and report upon its nature, means of prevention and amelioration. He also recommends further legislation for greater security. He also refers to an attempt to send hides from an infected district to this

Consul Abbott, at Sheffield, writes that the farmers who were at first opposed to extreme measures are now, in consequence of the losses in their herds, demanding the most rigorous measures. The Commissions and other official data, condense a brief history of the plague which is officially declared to be identical with the inderpest of continental Europe, and with the fatal murrain of 1745, which ravaged England for twelve years, and in the last year destroyed thirty thousand cattle in a single country. It is shown that in 1862 it destroyed attacked in the Austrian dominions. In 1863 it overrun Hungary and other Austran dependencies, tiltuig from sixty-five to nine y-eight per cent of those sitacked in the several provinces. The Commissioners report that France by prompt action extipated the disease last antumn with a loss of forty-three cattle, and afterward, when introduced into the Paris Jartin D'Acclamation, it was again exterminated, with the loss of thirty-dive animals, among which were gazelles, yakes, zebus and fallow deer. CANADA

OIL ON THE TROUBLED WATERS.

NO RUN ON THE BANKS--- NO PANIC.

Gold at a Discount--- Greenbacks at Par.

Re-established.

The Canadian Irish Loyal to the Provincial Government but True to the Old Country.

Cheers for Bishop Lynch and Head Centre Stephens. &c.

The excitement regarding the Fenian movement has died away to such an extent in this busy city, as to call for praise of the people's good sense. In fact, from what I now see I doubt very much if the excitement ran as high here as has been represented, for there is evident to the most casual observer a calumess and quiet which can hardly be of very recent growth.

GOLD AT A DISCOUNT.

The stories about the run upon the banks and the exhaustion of specie were among the first reported results of the excitement. If such were the case, it is very sin-gular that specie at the present time is at a depreciation.

Southern rebellion, and who remembers the jests and contumely with which the paper money of the United States was then regarded, it is a matter of much complacency to observe the manner in which the long-insulted greenbacks are now exteemed. They are placed on a par, of course, with gold, but in trade are exchangeable as readily as the paper money of Canada. There is no hesi-tation, as there used to be, about the exchange. Many readily as there used to be, about the exchange. Many of your readers will remember that the brokers here were as unwilling to deal in them as in "wild-cat" notes. Yet to-day they pass over their counters with all the readiness of the most desirable paper.

Montreal, in a business point of view, is doing well by the excitement. There is an unusual activity created by the presence of a large garrison, and the stores and hotels are transacting a lively business. The soldsors meet you at every step—on the street, where they lostle you on the circumscribed sidewalks, in the barrooms, its the billiard rooms—everywhere, in fact, about the city of the cavalry are eternally dashing about the streets, barking their shins against the flying cutters; for the cavalry to its remembered, does not as yet embrace most skilful horsemen. The officers belong to the "dem foine" set. Dressed in fur-odged overcoats, neathy round-tood boots, brimless and peakless hairy caps, they aff ct small cames and a deal of side whisker, and ogle the girls on the streets, or lounge most gracefully round the hotels and public rooms. "The front" is an expression in use here with as much frequency as though that locality, so suggestive of the presence of the enemy, really existed.

Et a time that the bubble of Fanian invasion were ex-incality, no suggestive of the presence of the enemy, really existed.

RO GAURE FOR THE ALARM.

It is time that the bubble of Fenian invasion were exploded. The leaders of the confederation scheme, of course, use it now as a "good enough Morgan," until the seasons of the provincial Parliaments during the next two mouths. Then it will have served its purpose and will be among the things that were. Of the siliness of this fear any one who has travelled along the border must have become convinced. In my journeying during the present excitement I have passed along the borders of Vermont and Northern New York, whence the invasion was most dreaded, and I have failed to discern the zlightest cause for alarm to our Canadian neighbors.

The new bugbear which is taking possession of the popular mind is the prospective draft for men if the volunteer corps is not enlarged to a sufficient extent to secure, or promise to secure, as efficient de ence. It is this possible contingency which has already sent many canadians into the United States, which, now resting after its long war, holds forth the most encouraging prospects for industry and labor.

Our Kingston Correspondence.

I have just made a rapid run of the left wing of the Canadian army from Toronto to Montreal, for the purpose of noticing what preparations are being made for the defence of the province, as well as to a quant myself and your readers with the sentiments of the people about the consternation that has recently possessed this usually quiet and hard-fisted community.

residents so diversified upon the great questions before their legislatures that I had come to view them as a who felt that the only solution to the snari into which Canadian political affairs had been worked, was annexation or a separate and independent government, where no tribute would be paid to England. That time was only last summer. The abrogation of the Reciprocity treaty, or rather the mode adopted for its renewal, and this grand Fenian bugbeay, have had their effect here, and to-day the annexationists, who, a few short months ago, were well up towards the best of the class, have been ordered back to the foot, and the people, forgetting all other questions except the one of danger that threatens them, now are almost a unit for defence and the maintenance of law this point that the moment the first shot was fired by an almost a unit for defence and the maintenance of law and order in these provinces. So united are they upon this point that the moment the first shot was fired by an invading army the study yeomanry would raily from every part of the country to drive back an invader whom they have learned to look upon as an assessin and murdeler who would show no quarter.

THE RESTRIKEN'S OF THE RUSH CATHOLICS.

While this is the case as regards the entire population, including the very large body known as the Irish Reman Catholics, I am free to confess that the loyalty of the Catholics only extends to the government under which they live in this province. I will not do them the injustice to say that the Irish Catholics of Canada have so far forgotten the oppression that England has heaped upon them in the past as new to turn recreant to their country. They are satisfied with the liberal form of self-government as it exists in this province, but still they sympathize deeply with the wrongs of their fatherland, and offer up many a fervent prayer that the Green Isle may yet come up grandly out of its present en-lawed constituent. If you have read the speeches delivered in Montreal, Kingston and other points on St. Patrick's Day, you must have discovered this fact, that while Irishmen of Canada are ready to sacrifice their lives and their fortunes to drive back an invader and sustain the local government that protects them, there was not an eulegium reased upon Great Britain. In this city cheers were given for Stephens and O'Mahony, and I am credibly informed that the rame exhibition of the Irish sympathy was manifested in Toronto. In Montreal, on St. Patrick's Day, where nearly ten thousand Irisamen turned out to honor the memory of their patron saint, and after cheers had been given for the volunteers, and T. Darcy Meice had spoken, some one in the crowd called for cheers for Stephens, which was enthusisatically responded to The local press carefully suppressed this exhibition of Irish sympathy. The shows, I think, that while the
